

My problem with William Miller

Posted by Temp - 2009/05/14 21:46

William is no doubt sleeping peacefully in his grave, in which he was laid in 1815 at Bishops Stortford. His age was given as 77, which means that he was born around 1738. The trouble is, that I cannot find any record of his birth. There is a William in Much Hadham born in 1727, and in the Militia Lists there is a William Miller in Little Hadham for 1758 and 1761, as well as a William Miller in the Bishops Stortford Lists from 1758 on.

Just to confuse me more, his marriage to Mary Thickings in 1759 was recorded both in Bishops Stortford and in Much Hadham.

Has anyone else come up against this bloke? Can you suggest any leads?
